FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Snow in the City of Eustis

EUSTIS, Fla. (Nov. 26, 2024) – Enjoy the holiday atmosphere at Snowflakes by the Lake throughout the month of December from 6 – 9 p.m. in Ferran Park.

Snow will be falling each Friday night between Thanksgiving and New Year’s – December 6, 13, 20 and 27 – in Ferran Park every half hour for 10 minutes. The first night of Snowflakes by the Lake will coincide with the December First Friday event happening in Downtown Eustis.

Santa will be visiting the Alice McCelland Bandshell stage from 6 – 9 p.m. on December 6, 13 and 20. Children are encouraged to share their holiday wishes and take free pictures with Santa on the decorated stage. Parents are reminded to bring their cameras to take photos.

Magical guest appearances by Queen Elsa and her sister will be on the final night, Friday, Dec. 27 of Snowflakes by the Lake from 6 – 9 p.m. in Ferran Park. Families are invited to take photos with the roaming characters.

The City of Eustis Events and Communication department is also excited to announce their first Christmas tree Stroll at the historical Clifford House. The trees, which will be decorated by local organizations, will be on display in the Clifford House Gardens from Friday, Nov. 29 – Monday, Dec. 15.

Downtown Eustis and Ferran Park will be decorated with festive lights, wreaths and banners throughout December. The Christmas tree Ferran Park will have a lightshow display every night.
