FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The City of Eustis holds Winterfest Event

EUSTIS, Fla. (Dec. 5, 2024) – The City of Eustis will hold the Winterfest event on Saturday, Dec. 14, 2024. The free event will be from 5 – 8 p.m. in Carver Park, located at 2214 East Bates Ave. in Eustis.

The event will feature holiday themed snacks, crafts and games for families to enjoy. Children will be able to decorate holiday cookies while drinking provided hot chocolate. A live DJ will play festive music throughout the night.

There will also be a special visit from Santa. Children will have the chance to sit with Santa to take photos and share their Christmas wishes. Parents are encouraged to bring their cameras for photo opportunities.

A holiday gift raffle will also take place during the Winterfest event. Participants must check in at the Parks and Recreation tent to receive raffle tickets. Entrees have the chance to win toys, books or outdoor equipment.

Food trucks and vendors will also fill Carver Park to offer festive activities for visitors of all ages.
